

Espresso & Coffee!

We were searching for one thing when we began sourcing our coffee beans: quality. That alone led us to our friends at Vantage Coffee Roasters, local to us in Martin, Tennessee, who provides us with coffee beans, hand-roasted in small batches, ensuring great consistency. We get our coffee delivered to us on a weekly basis, guaranteeing that we get the freshest beans possible. So whether it's a latte made with espresso or a cup of drip coffee, we strive to give our customers a quality experience.

What's in it?

Espresso - a concentrated form of coffee made by forcing pressurized hot water through finely ground espresso beans using an espresso machine.

Latte - espresso mixed with steamed milk.

Mocha - espresso mixed with steamed milk and your choice of dark or white chocolate. A marbled mocha is one made with both dark and white chocolate.

Cappuccino - espresso mixed with steamed milk and topped with a generous amount of light, fluffy milk foam.

Macchiato - espresso with steamed milk. Characterized by the way the espresso is layered above the steamed milk.

Café Misto - traditional drip coffee mixed with steamed milk.

Frappe - an iced beverage blended into a tasty treat, often with espresso in it.

Americano - espresso diluted with hot water to give it a similar strength to a latte but with a bolder taste.
